

Jeanine Hildreth

Director of Research and Evaluation Services
Baltimore City Public Schools

Jeanine Hildreth is currently Director of Research and Evaluation in the Office of Achievement and Accountability. She has worked for BCPS since December 2005. Prior to joining BCPS she worked as a Senior Research Associate at Policy Studies Associates in Washington, DC. Jeanine is currently a doctoral candidate in education policy and research at the University of Maryland, College Park. Her dissertation research is exploring middle grade student achievement in Baltimore.