

Laura Weeldreyer
Deputy Chief of Staff, Baltimore City Public Schools

Laura Weeldreyer is the Deputy Chief of Staff for Baltimore City Public Schools. She has worked in central office for 9 years. She is the lead staff on the district's stimulus planning, including the Human Capital strategy development, and also leads the district's initiatives to create new public schools. Laura was a 1991 Teach for America corps member and taught in New Orleans and Baltimore. She was a community organizer on school reform issues for a citywide non-profit, and a policy advocate at a statewide non-profit organization. Laura went to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill for her BA and she holds an MPA from the University of Baltimore.